We now have a vibrant Facebook private group! Cindy Cutsforth created the group called Valley Quilters Guild - Green Valley, AZ and it now has 100+ members who are sharing ideas, news, and quilt pictures.

This is an interactive way of keeping in touch during this trying time. Maybe you can add a picture of a project or two that you've been working on.

To join, go to Groups in Facebook and search for Valley Quilters or click on the link below. When you find the group, click on Request to Join and Cindy or another administrator will let you in.

Facebook is a good way to enjoy each other's work and to celebrate each time we finish a project. No item is too small or too insignificant to post. Our group values each person, at whatever skill level.

Would you like to be an administrator or help out? Contact the VP or the Webmaster.
